> Everyone regretted that one of the most ney-locking of the lot, drawn by a now and very welcome sport, Mr. J. H. It was Mr. Lewis's initial venture and the fickle goddess was very severe in disposing of such a capital chance, Not allowing this reverse to damp his spirits. however, Mr. Lewis, I am pleased to learn, has ordered a Derby griffin and will thus, saving a double visitation of ill-luck, still see his colours on the Hongkong Racecourse. I wish him the success deserved

The subscription griffles taken all round are very even lot, and it would be difficult to name say half a dozen who appear to-be distinotly better than the rest. In my mind's eye there are perhaps one or two which might at hezard be named for the Valley Stakes and Gorman Cup, but it would be neither wise nor reasonable to mention names at this stage. In the course of his remarks the learned counsel asked the defendant what he had been living on. He replied that he in de his living partly by borrowing money and sometimes by work. No further question was put to him and that part of the enquiry was not pressed any further. Defendant gave an answer to the question and if the loarned onunsel wished to know how much he borrowed or from whom, and how much he derived from work; he could have fol-lowed up the question. The burden of proof is laid on the pinintiff and not on the defendant. The only fact alleged is that he has been tobrothets and spent a lot of money. The witness who is called to prove that is the execution ereditor and he gives on mocount which. ansupported as it is, I am loth to believe. He would make the Court believe that he has been constantly with this man to brothels and seen by a Chinese broker against whom judgment him hand over a large number of dellars, hunwas recently given as guaranter for the payment | dreds and tensus he says. We have, however, the fact proved that the mother of the defendant is a Mr. Grist (of Mr. C. D. My opinion is that plaintiff has altogether failed in the proof of what he had to make out and he is seeking now by keeping this man in prison to gut money from his relatives. There is no proof of how much the man made or how much he This money was borrowed when P-September spont in brothels; except this very unsatisfuctory evidence. The prisoner is released.

REPORT OF THE MANAGING COMMITTEE. The following report of the Managing Com-

Tulisman was timed 33, 1.05. Mr. Smyth's trio, pears to have been in the habit of going to of the hospital has been carried on as usual and without interruption throughout the year. Upon recent inspection we find the buildings and premises in good order. The hospital report will show an increase in. attendance, and also an increase in receipts, for which we are thankful. The gradual development of the work each year necessitates a larger expenditure of funds and this waterest will be remembered by the friends and patrons of the Society.	,

An excess over the appropriation for foreign medicines and supplies was necessitated by more of a demand than usual from outside dispensarios and also the very low rate of exchange. This excess is largely met by the increase in	Ox

IMPERIAL QUARTO. NGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. DIC''IONARY. WITH THE PURTI AND MANDABIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the

-NOW ON SALE.

Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterised Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration:-Chalmers Vecabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwar is of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the Ratie Flickinger. Aur. sch., 172, McRue, Dec. student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples Kintuok, British steamer, 2,312, Kenp, Jan. 10, this work contains more than five times as the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested Butterfield & Swire-

It comprises upwards of two thousand large Peiping, Chinese stc., 325, Chard, Dec. 24, 4 Vols. IMPERIAL QUARTO, Price, $20. A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made o Purchasers of SIX or more Copies.
